		1	2	3	4	5
The Number of volunteers was appropriate
Volunteers worked the expected amount of time
The Attitude of Volunteers was respectful
The Volunteers demonstrated a good work ethic.
The Volunteers completed the work I requested.
These Volunteers were genuinely needed.
Volunteers are always welcomed but were not really needed at this time so I made it a point to find work that would engage them.
Volunteers were welcomed but not really needed. Local volunteers could have completed this same work assignment.
I support student volunteer programs, but at times it is more work for us to set up the service than the benefit we receive from the service.
I would like to see this group return for service here

I was able to effectively communicate our organization's mission to the service immersion group.
The service work will inspire local groups and individuals to volunteer at this site more often.
I will take steps to see that the volunteers' service work is recognized by our community and/or surrounding communities. (If agreed, what might be some ways the work could be recognized? _____
