Spring Break Immersion Participant Commitment Form

I _____ as a participant on a Spring Break Immersion am aware of and commit to the following:

- Time Commitment: I understand and commit to the FULL time commitment that accompanies participation in the immersion outlined below. I agree to my immersion coordinator, promptly if any conflicts arise.
  - Spring Break Immersion Kick-Off –(date, time & location TBD).
  - Weekly group meetings for 90 minutes starting the week of Feb. 20th – March 19th (4-5 total mtgs.)
  - Miscellaneous activities outside of meeting time for 1-2 hours each week.
  - The spring break immersion experience.
  - At minimum 3 post-trip meetings of 90 minutes occurring in the Spring Quarter.
- Cost: I understand that there is a participation fee for the Spring Break Immersion experience. I commit to paying this full amount prior to the trip departure unless otherwise determined by the Ignatian Center staff. I commit to contracting and working with the Ignatian Center staff with regards to any particular financial needs I may have or that may arise during my participation. I understand that if I am unable to attend the trip for any reason, I am financially responsible for the entire participation fee. Specific details will be worked out with the Ignatian Center staff.
- Communication: I will communicate responsibly with the group as a whole and especially the Student Coordinator. I will respond to emails in a timely manner. I will let Immersion Coordinator know about any conflict, issues, and/or feedback throughout the experience.
- Simple Living and Flexibility: I understand that simple living is a pillar of the Ignatian Center immersions and I commit to being flexible and engaging fully in all aspects on the immersion. In this full engagement of simple living, I commit to upholding the Conduct Agreement and representing the values of Santa Clara University throughout the immersion.
- Academic and Behavioral Standing: I understand that immersion participants must be in both good academic and behavioral standing with University as detailed in the Eligibility Policy for Participation in Student Activities. I understand that if I am not in good academic and behavioral standing, I will discuss this with the Ignatian Center staff during the immersion interview. For more information about the Eligibility Policy please refer to the Student Handbook
- Engagement: I commit to be fully present to the experience at meetings, on the trip and after the trip. I will engage, ask questions, listen, share my thoughts and opinions, disagree, respect the group and people we meet, etc. I will commit to getting to know the group. I will try to have fun.

I understand all of the responsibilities that are required of a Spring Break Immersion Participant
