

Spirituality Survey:

International Immersion experience helps us expand our understanding of the world, others and ourselves. We need to be true to ourselves but open to the “other”.

1-How comfortable are you sharing in a group about your faith, spirituality or what gives you purpose or meaning in life?

2- How do you feel about participating in Catholic services or reflections?

3-How do you feel we can best enrich all of our experience in the preparation, trip and return by sharing our faith tradition or other beliefs during the communal services and reflections?

4-Do you have any suggestions, questions or concerns regarding participation in any spiritual component of the program?

5- How do you think we can best respect each others faith traditions during our time together in the program?

“Faithful to the Vatican Council, the Congregation wanted our preaching and teaching not to proselytize, not to impose our religion on others, but rather to propose Jesus and his message of God’s Kingdom in a spirit of love to everyone.”

Fr. Peter-Hans Kolvenbach S.J.

“ A truly global spirituality recognizes that God’s love and sacred presence is manifested in diverse and wonderful ways everywhere around the planet, in all cultures, nations, beliefs. A global spirituality respects diversity. It seeks to discover truth, beauty and goodness in many different cultural manifestation. It recognizes the sacred wisdom and experience of all the world’s cultures and traditions; Hinduism, Buddhism, Islam, Judaism, Christianity and tribal religions. A new world order will be nurtured in the universal extensions of love, compassion, justice and peace.” By Patricia Mische
